Eventhough petitioner has alleged that advance contribution and final determination orders are made without hearing him, standing counsel for the 1st respondent submitted that petitioner refused to receive notice. It is seen from the order that petitioner was in operation of stage carriage and demand is made based on evidence given by employees. Contribution demanded is only for three workers. In the circumstances, I find no ground to interfere with the orders under challenge. However, if petitioner wants to file appeal, she may do so. Writ petition is closed.
